Welcome, New Community Connections Manager Patrick Kilbane!

We are happy to announce the addition of Patrick Kilbane to the Community Connections Team. Patrick has worked as an SSA at Riverside since 2016, and worked closely with the Community Connections Team to create opportunities for people on his caseload. He has been sharing the role and working alongside previous Community Connections Manager Krista Smith, whose last day working with us is October 11. In his new role, Patrick oversees the day-to-day operations of the recreation and advocacy programming offered by Riverside, in addition to serving as the Local Coordinator for Miami County Special Olympics.

Patrick brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in the developmental disabilities field to his new role. Before joining Riverside as an SSA, he worked at the Pickaway County Board of Developmental Disabilities as a Business Liaison working with adults with disabilities seeking employment, as well as serving as the local lead for the Bridges to Transition program in Madison and Pickaway Counties. In Pickaway County, he also held positions as a Transition Services Specialist and an Intervention Specialist at Brooks-Yates School. In his time at Riverside, Patrick has served as a LifeCourse Ambassador, educating professionals, families and people with developmental disabilities on the benefits of using worksheets from the LifeCourse Toolkit for life planning. He also serves as a volunteer co-chair on the Parent Advisory Committee (PAC) as well as Medicaid Block Planning group through the Ohio Department of Health.

Patrick holds bachelor's and master's degrees in special education from the University of Toledo. He lives in Arcanum with his wife, Ashley, their 3 children and beloved goldendoodle, Opal. Please join the Riverside family in welcoming Patrick to this role, while thanking Krista for her many years of time and dedication to serving people and families in Miami County.

Outgoing Community Connections Manager Krista Smith & Patrick Kilbane have worked side-by-side before her October departure to spend more time with her family.

Brennen (and Mom & Dad) Trying New Things

By Linda Hinger

My husband and I have a hard time "loosening the apron strings" when it comes to Brennen; but with the support and encouragement from Brennen's SSA, Andrew Luring and the CC Team, Brennen has become more active in the Community Connections/Special Olympics activities over the last year.

We have never let Brennen go anywhere without one of us (his parents) present. Brennen has always loved basketball, but over the summer, we were encouraged to introduce Brennen to softball and he loved it! There was the "ah-ha" moment when I saw Brennen bloom with a spurt of independence. He rode the van to an away softball game (yes, Dad and I followed in our car!) and Brennen got off the van with his teammates and he walked up to the Community Connections manager, Patrick Kilbane, and said "Hi Patrick" and off he walked with his teammates; not looking back to see if Dad and Mom were coming. At that moment, my heart knew that Brennen would be ok.

We are so appreciative of the support and encouragement from SSA Luring and the CC Team for our son as we continue to "loosen our apron strings."
